SUMTER

Has no market yet. But she wants one nothing less than she did some time ago. And she's determined to have one. Do you hear that?

"IS THERE A GOD?"

The poem, by Mr. W. G. KENNEDY. under this heading, published on the fourth page of this issue, contains Divine and natural truth, clothed in beauty and in pathos. We are sure our readers will find pleasure in it, and trust Mr. KENNEDY will continue his contribu-

The "stump lightwood" business of Sumter has been brisk for some time past. The supply, however, bids fair to exceed the demand, and "carriers" seem somewhat depressed' Meanwhile, "bundles" are somewhat smaller and "stumps" close to town, almost as "scarce as hens'

SUMTER POST OFFICE.

We see it announced in our Charleston exchanges that Thomas B Johnson has been confirmed Post Master at Sumter, S. C. This is practical demonstration of the old country saw, "go away from home to hear news about home."

AGRICULTURAL MEETING.

Saturday next is the day fixed for an extra meeting of the Agricultural Society and for the exhibition and trial of labor saving and improved Agricultural Implements. We trust there will be a large attendance of our farmers. Let us avail ourselves of every aid available in the great business of tilling the soil. In many particulars, we are doubtless far behind. Conomy of labor is what we wanthow to accomplish the most with the least expenditure of the power of human

BEAUTIFUL CLOCK, AND ORNA-

Many persons have called to see and admire the beautiful clock kept by MR. F II. Forsom, who has for his department a portion of the store occupied by Mr. Joun W DARGAN as a confectionery. The idea is one of natural beauty blended with pleasing sentiment. We con made, and wish him that success his industry and perseverance merit.

THE PUBLIC SCHOOL

Recently established at Sumter, for white children, by the School Commissioner, Mr J. N. Connert, under the tutership of Miss. EMMA WESTCOATayoung lady of high respectability and decided accomplist .. ents and proficiency as a teacher-has continued to grow, until, at present, it numbers some forty or fifty scholars, and bids fair to become

In consequence of this rapid increase of its numbers, no more scholars can be received until the school is organized upon a more extended basis.

FINE TOBACCO.

Our friends, Messrs J. A MAYES & Co., of Mayesville, with their accustomed liberality and kindness, have sent us, in a neat package, express paid, liberal samples of smoking and chewing tobacco. kept by them for sale. We profess to know whereof we speak, when, after subjecting them to "critical (experimental) examination," we pronounce them fine. Messrs. J. A. MAYES & Co. advertise in the Watchman from year to year-adopting the wise policy of keep ing their business constantly before the people. Abundant success to them say

ADDITIONAL PREMIUMS.

We learn from the Columbia Phanix that at the last meeting of the Executive Committee of the State Agricultural and Mechanical Society, Mr. James M. Crawford was awarded the following premiums: The greatest production of cotton upon five acres of restored upland, $15; same upon one acre, $5-making seven premiums received by Mr. C .very good for one man. An account of the cultivation of the crop will be published in the February number of the Rural Carolinian.

FOUR COPIES FOR ONE DOLLAR. The Little Soldier, published at Macon, Ga., by J. W. Burke & Co., is the cheapest and handsomest Sunday School paper in this country, North or South! Each number contains sixteen pages and from eight to ten elegant ongravings. Single copies 50 cents a year, or four copies, sent to one address, one dollar.

VIRGINIA.

The poor devils who are now called Virginia—for most of the good men are dead—are hanging on to the "Union" by the cyclids, or, as it were, by the skin of their teeth. Having ratified amendments fourteenth and fifteenth, Our efficient Town Council has by the cyclids, or, as it were, by the recently improved the condition of a skin of their teeth. Having ratified amendments fourteenth and fifteenth. and having complied with every requirement of the insolent and infamous "reconstruction" acts, these poor residuary Virginians, led and encouraged by their friends and patrons the carpet bag politicians, had indeed made sure, as they thought, that their State might at last be allowed to crawl in upon her belly, and take her place once more in the sacred Epluribus Unum .- John Mitchel.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

THE PLANTERS' WARE HOUSE .- Offers oure Peruvian Guano for sale. This establish. ment is well maintaining its popularity eince it passed into the hands of Messre. Chas. H. Moise and Joseph E. Baskin. The many friends of our old and highly esteemed fellow citizen, Mr. John E. Brown, will find him connected with the "Planters' Warehouse."

LYNCHBURG FEMALE SCHOOL .- This chool was opened on the first of February, inst. ith Mrs. Willium, late of Davenport Female with Mrs. Willium, late of Davenport Female College, as teacher. Mrs. Wilbun is a lady of decided accomplishment and proficiency as a teacher, and is the sister of Rev. II. M. Moor, of this place. Under her tutership, we doubt not the School must prosper and be useful. Mr. E. Spencer, of Lynchburg, who is chairman of the Board of Frustees, will be pleased to furnish all information desired. Torms, &c., see the advertisement on another column

MUSIC LESSONS, PIANO TUNING. &c .dr. H. C. M. Koppe, late of Charleston, has art. R. C. M. Roppe, and will teach music, vocal and instumental, tune pianos, &c. Mr. Knopp taught music with success in Charleston for soveral years, being patronized by a large number of the bost and most accomplished citizens of that city. We commend him to the favorable consideration of our community.

"THE POOR MAN'S RELIEF."-Such is the lesignation of a new variety of cotton, grown in Alabama, the seed of which is effered to our Planters by Mr. T. H. Dick, and orders for which will be received by A. White & Co., of Sumter and Messrs. Mayer & Coupen, of Mayes-ville. Samples of this cotton, in the boll and in the lint, will be exhibited by the parties indicated. It has the highest testimonials, for superiority over any other variety. The bolls are very large and the stuple is beautiful. See advertisement.

T. A. FRIERSON-Offers accommodation, in comfortable vehicles, to persons desiring to visit any portion of this or the surrounding counties, also to do hauling. We commend him to the patronage of the public. See his advertisement. REAMS, CHANDLER & CO-Will furnish Lumber, at reduced prices, at their Steam Mill
